Nestled in the heart of the countryside stands this beautiful property which looks as though it should be in the Alps given it's unusual design for this province. The land is most part mountainous but 3 of the 120 hectares are planted with olive trees and there's a water deposit for irrigation if required although the trees are well established. The property is 350 m<sup>2</sup> built and in need of external re-decoration, built 20 years ago it has all modern facilities. For Internet connection would need to be via satellite as the property is so secluded there are no antenna's in the area, but there are good Internet providers available. The property consists of a hallway with stairs to the first and second floors. Kitchen & pantry. Large lounge with open fireplace and dining area. Four double bedrooms, reading room/bedroom, three full bathrooms and large attic space. All the windows have shutters. Electricity is connected and there is full central heating. Access to the house is a private road which is reasonable but a 4 x 4 vehicle is preferable or even better a helicopter, (there is a perfect spot for a helipad close to the property). A stunning location and just a ten minute drive from the...
