A beautiful totally reformed cortijo with 2 casitas in gated grounds with rural tourism license from the Junta de Andalucía. The property is situated off a very short track and is entered through wrought iron gates. The accommodation is all set around a beautiful Andalucian courtyard. The large entrance hall has a staircase to the master bedroom which has an en-suite bathroom and separate dressing room. Three further bedrooms with en-suite facilities. Downstairs cloakroom off the main entrance hall. A door leads to the sitting room complete with large feature fireplace with huge log burner set into it, large patio doors to the tiled terrace which has superb views over the mountains. From the sitting room is a large kitchen/diner also with a feature fireplace. From the dining room is a large utility room with dishwasher, fridge freezer, washer and dryer. A back door from the dining room leads to another dining area that has shade cover and views of the pool. Double patio doors lead to the courtyard which can also be accessed from the entrance hall. From the courtyard the outside dining room is reached by a metal staircase. The current owners use the courtyard for their own private Jacuzzi area. The property is set in mature gardens...
