A prestigious private 42 hectare estate with hacienda style country house with independent staff accommodation and separate entertaining suite situated a short drive from the town of Archidona, Malaga province. The hacienda style country house is spread over four levels, starting with independent staff accommodation on the lowest level and a separate entertaining suite in a quintessential Spanish rustic style. The main house spread over two levels boasts six bedrooms, entry hall and staircase and extensive terrace areas. Atop the property are a brand new penthouse suite and adjacent baby room plus spectacular views from its own private terracing and entertainment area. The larger and newly built heated outdoor pool (one of two) is set in the pleasant gardens adjoining the building on the West side. The outbuildings and stables are situated to the east. They consist of a private bull ring and associated installations, modern stables and paddock for 5 horses and a large modern building to house extensive farm machinery. The land is extensive stretching over 42 hectares and has its own well water. If the new owner so wishes, the current agricultural and house staff can remain with the property. The property is special as a private retreat with further potential for rural tourism and...
