6500m²

Beautiful cave designed in a circular style and completely refurbished and ready to move in to. The cave returns back on itself so lots of light and ventilation. It has three bedrooms, kitchen with fireplace, living room and bathroom. At the front, there is a patio with a pergola and from there it leads to the small panoramic terrace. The cave is on a plot of 6,500 m² and there is a viewing deck above the cave which overlooks the village. The property has mains electricity, mains water and excellent access by surfaced road. Situated in the tiny village of Pulpite in the municipality of Cullar around 45 minutes from Granada and the airport.
