The main dwelling was fully renovated in 1995 with style and taste to provide excellent living accommodation for a large family, or for guests. The decor and design reflect the international influences of the owners, who have sympathetically included features not normally found in Andalusian fincas. The main dwelling features delightful tiled terraces with exterior lighting to the front elevation where you will find double doors providing access to the elegant entrance. The central, high ceilinged, hallway opens to a very large, fully fitted, quality kitchen with dining area, which has direct access to the rear terraces and a bodega beneath the stairs. At the rear of the kitchen with external access is the utility/ laundry room. From the hallway there is a large fully equipped bathroom and guest cloakroom. To the right is the main living room which is spacious and light and features the fireplace and TV area, as well as other areas for reading and relaxing. An Islamic archway leads to the reading room with library to the rear and this room also features direct access to the rear terraces. The sweeping staircase takes you up to a large landing/seating area from where all the bedrooms and bathrooms lead off. Each of the five bedrooms in the main...
