A very spacious well-maintained 4 bedroom, 2 bathrooms with a one bedroom attic flat with separate entrance. This well maintained cave house is like a tardis, and round every corner/through every room is a very pleasant surprise!! The cave is situated in a very quiet location in the little hamlet of Puente Arriba, which is part of the lovely village of Benamaurel. You enter the property into the living room and if you turn right there is a kitchen/diner. Behind the kitchen is bedroom 1. At the back of the lounge is bedroom 2 which has a sink in it and a door that leads to a bathroom. If you walk through the bathroom there is another door that leads to a lovely little bar which is also accessible from the patio, great for entertaining! There is another room at the back of the bar. Beyond the kitchen is an office/study and if you go through there you will find a shower room and large pantry. There is also another room off from the kitchen which is a bedroom (3). Then you follow the cave through and you come to another bedroom (4) and a doorway with stairs leading to the attic flat(which used to be the old grain room, you...
