Reference: GU280 Granada Hunting Estate

3,500,000€

8000000m<sup>2</sup>

A staggeringly beautiful hunting property on the San Clemente side of the La Sagra mountain range. There is an abundance of water and game is plentiful. A short distance from the town of Huescar in Granada province. There are around 800 hectares of land in total and three separate cortijos. This finca is fenced and well stocked with big and small game in the prettiest setting you can imagine. There are natural springs and feeding points and all of this provides a fantastic habitat for the game. Wild boar, ibex and mountain goat are abundant as well as partridge, rabbit and hare. The property has its own water supply in abundance and a good all-weather dirt road. The property extends around halfway up the La Sagra Mountain which is one of the highest peaks in Southern Spain.
