A truly beautiful country house fully reformed keeping the Andalusian architecture as thick walls and beamed wooden ceilings. This is a unique property and one of the most beautiful country houses you've ever seen... There are 100 meters to the village where there are 3 bars, a shop and a small supermarket. The picturesque spa town of Alhama de Granada is a 10 mins drive, Granada international airport a 35 minutes. Located on the edge of a small village where feeling the Andalusian lifestyle yet, this property offers a great opportunity to run a business or a great family home, an exclusive country home just for rustic style lovers.... At the front of the house there is a good size terrace and parking areas with access to the patio via a metal gate. From the front terrace you enter to a hallway-reception, off to the right there is a double bedroom of approx. 15Sqm, off to the left there is another double bedroom of 15m2 approx. And an archway leads you to a dressing room of approx. 11Sq m currently used as a double bedroom. Off the hallway there is a cute bathroom of approximately where an old chimney has been converted in to a walk-in shower with screen,... lovely!!!
