A superb opportunity to own a piece of local history and huge potential as bespoke guest house, restaurant or large family home. An original Andalucian country Hacienda style villa built in 1945 by the grandfather of the current owners, wealthy flour merchant who ran the large flour mill which still sits close by this imposing home. Located close by the old railway station of Tocon & Motefrio this amazing house is 1 hour from Málaga, 40 minutes from Granada and 20 minutes from Montefrio. The main house has 5 large bedrooms and original family bathroom on the first floor, a large bedroom overlooking the garden and separate bathroom on the ground floor, formal dining room with serving hatch, summer dining room with access to rear courtyard with well and walled garden, lounge with original fireplace, second reception room and large kitchen and large walk in pantry which also has access to courtyard. Off the kitchen a separate staircase leads to the servant's living quarters consisting of a double bedroom, long open lounge with fantastic views on both sides. Off the courtyard there is an outside toilet and cloakroom originally for the staff. The house is structurally sound and has had the whole roof and large atrium recently replaced. The owners have...
