This amazing country house situated in a small hamlet 15 minutes from Osuna, Seville province has been lovingly renovated by the current owners using top quality materials and is currently used as a family home, with the couple living in the main with the couple living in the main farmhouse, and 3 luxury suites with individual entrances providing privacy for family members and other guests. The olive groves (producing between 7 and 20 tonnes of olives a year) are farmed to produce extra virgin oil for the family restaurant, and a kitchen garden and herb garden provide fresh produce also used in the family restaurant. The 466m² farmhouse is surrounded by a 5000m² walled gardens, beautifully laid out with shrubs and trees and has a feature threshing ring, large patio with 11x 8 metre swimming pool, feature fountain and outdoor kitchen. On entering the farmhouse through the large, original wooden doors, you are immediately struck by the quality and charm of the renovated home. The entrance hall is large, and in common with the rest of the house it has high, beamed ceilings and many parts of the plastered walls are left to expose the sandstone from the original house. Here we also find one of the 3 wood-burning stoves...
