Situated at only 30 minutes from the centre of Seville and the same again from the white beaches of the Costa de la Luz this unique equestrian estate lies at the gates to the 100.000 ha National Park of La Doñana. On 20.000 m2 of completely flat land a horseman's paradise was created with every detail in mind to make life and living in this architectural gem as pleasant and comfortable as possible. This equestrian paradise is equally suited as a private residence or as a destination for the discerning equestrian tourist offering utmost luxury and comfort.

There are four buildings strategically positioned around the equestrian installations, each building having its' own character and serving different purposes. There is the main residence with a large rustic lounge and four spacious bedroom suites, the reception cum office building, the Club House with gourmet restaurant and another two bedroom suites with integrated kitchenette and the stable block with the changing rooms, showers, massage and relax facilities. In the centre of 3.000 m2 of manicured gardens is the superb swimming pool with integrated whirl pool. All rooms are centrally heated, have air conditioning and are equipped with minibar, safe boxes, hair dryers and much more. The furniture is specially crafted of...
