RESERVED A 150-year-old cortijo tastefully remodeled with wooden beam ceilings and 2 separate guest houses and set in 23,000 m² of land with almond and olive trees in the mountains of Malaga province. The main house is 254 m² and is comprised of living room with open fireplace, steps down to the old original kitchen, very large cool pantry, old stable turned into an office (big enough for a bedroom), double bedroom with en suite bathroom. The first guest house comprises open plan living room / kitchen with fireplace, bedroom with a Juliet balcony, and a shower room. The second guest house is accessed by a separate drive, south-facing terraces, from kitchen few steps to a living room with fireplace, family bathroom and two double bedrooms. This stylish south-facing property offers magnificent sea & mountain views and is set in 23,000 m² of land with approximately 60 olive & 60 almond trees and a 200-year-old carob tree. There are 2 wells and 1 spring and the access is via a 7km track in good condition.
