This rustic style cortijo was originally built in 1900s and renovated in 2002 by the current owners. They have managed to keep the old rustic charm and some of the original features including the bread oven and the donkey run but of course bringing it up to the current standards of living. The property comprises fully fitted kitchen with gas hob, dishwasher, breakfast bar and door to the covered terrace, dining area with feature wall and bread oven, lounge with wood burner and door to the grape covered terrace. Stairs with original beams to master bedroom with apex beamed roof, double aspect windows, panel heater and en-suite shower room. From the lounge there are 2 steps to bedroom 3 with panel heater and en-suite shower room. Another couple of steps from the lounge is the family shower room and then stairs up to bedroom 2 with double aspect windows, panel heater and built in wardrobes. The property is on a 2,500 m² fenced plot which is easily maintained and comprises covered terrace, grape covered terrace, open terrace, pool terrace with 8 x 4 m pool and ample parking 3,000 liter water deposit, Internet and TV package from Movistar available. The access is via 2 km part dirt track to the main...
