Casa Fiesta is an absolutely stunning rural retreat with four double bedrooms on the edge of San Clemente reservoir close to Huescar in Granada province. Set in 15,000 m² of land with many fruit trees and a small vineyard.

This property is truly a one-off and has to be seen to be believed. It is all on one level and is ideal as rural retirement property. There are four good sized double bedrooms, one with en-suite. There is also a large open plan kitchen and dining area with a feature open fireplace and a separate utility room. The lounge area is very spacious and the property is in good decorative order throughout. There is also a very large party room with its own bread oven and kitchen area which would make a great guest apartment. The garage has parking for four cars. The property is set within 3000 m² of well-established and irrigated gardens and there is a further 12000 m² of irrigated land including many fruit trees and a small vineyard. The water to this property is free as it is from a local spring.

This truly is a stunning property at the right price and early viewing is highly recommended. San Clemente is in Huéscar, province...
