This property is 245 m<sup>2</sup> built and has been recently reformed to a high standard conserving its best original features whilst at the same time offering all the modern comforts we are accustomed to. The house has seven bedrooms and can sleep up to 14 people and has 3 bathrooms, a lounge, large fully equipped kitchen diner, central heating and an open fire - needless to say lending itself to a rural style bed and breakfast with great possibilities for outdoor pursuits. The property also comes with 4000m<sup>2</sup> land surrounding the farm house with well-established pine trees, holm oaks and junipers. Situated between the provinces of Granada and Jaén between the national parks of Cazorla and Castril and it has great access to both.
