312m²

The property is 10 years old and 312 m² built. It has double glazing and central heating throughout. Comprised of entrance hallway, kitchen, lounge/diner, 2 bathrooms and four bedrooms. There's also a very large attic which is great for storing items or perhaps a children's play room. Adjoining the property is an older house with a large garage, utility area, kitchen, reception room and two bedrooms. There's a good sized patio area to the front of the newer property and 5,000m² of land with over 100 mature and cropping olive trees. Lovely spot, nice and quiet with views of open countryside located just outside the peaceful, pretty hamlet village of Fontanar which has a handful of shops and bars, and the larger town of Pozo Alcon just a five minute drive away.
