5400m²

This lovely property stands on 5,400m² of land planted to olives which are in production. The whole plot is fenced and gated so very safe for pets and children to spend time exploring. Beautifully presented inside the villa has a large lounge/diner with an open fireplace and the kitchen leads from the dining area. A wide hallway full of natural light takes you to the first two bedrooms and a secondary hallway to the other four, at the end is the access to the large garage/workshop area. The house has full central heating, Internet, water & electricity connected and is in perfect condition. The driveway, front and rear areas are laid to gravel and there are flower borders with mature shrubs and there's even a small pond. Located in a peaceful country spot with neighbours at a good distance away (200m minimum), access is via a tarmac road and Baza town is just a five minute drive away or a fifteen minute stroll. Baza is a very pretty town full of historical buildings, shops and tapas bars. There are fiesta's during the year, a large horse fair in Autumn and a unique celebration called the Cascamorras' which is a spectacle to witness. There's always something happening and lots...
