The house itself is very well maintained, inside a large living room which shares a lounge dining room and a modern American style kitchen. It connects to the covered terrace from where to enjoy the views. There is also a bedroom with a double bed and a bathroom. The large plot of approximately 42,000m² ensures pure peace and quiet in this property. Part of it is covered by stones with some decorative plants in the form of a terrace. There is enough space for several cars and a pergola for one car. Situated only half an hour from the coast, and one hour from Malaga airport.
