This fresh and light country house is 120 m² built and situated on open ground with delightful countryside views. The villa is comprised of 3 airy double bedrooms, 2 with a shared bathroom and the master en-suite, plus guest cloak room. The spacious and light kitchen features all round windows for enjoying the delightful country view. Sliding glass doors lead outside to the swimming pool where there is plenty of room to relax. The equestrian facilities are comprised of 5 loose boxes with space to double and the flat nature of the 18,000 m² land is ideal for turnout. Hacking out is unforgettable in the stunning countryside surroundings. It is ideally situated only 5 minutes from the village Ceralba. If you prefer the village life, then this is the place to live, Ceralba is an old village and very friendly place. Once a year they have a horse festival where people ride from all over the area to there and enjoy the games and giant paella they cook. You do not need to be horsey to enjoy this event, as it is a family affair. In 15 minutes you reach the busy and prosperous town of Coin which has a shopping mall, several schools, sporting facilities and 15 minutes from the...
