A long winding entrance driveway passes through orchards and grazing land to arrive at the main house. You enter the house by an impressive traditional wood front door. The main floor comprises of: an entrance hall, a large sitting/dining room with open fireplace, a country kitchen, an alcove with doors ideal for a small study/office, and a double bedroom with bathroom. The kitchen and living room lead to a large covered south-facing terrace overlooking the pool and with amazing panoramic views as far as the sea. A typical Andalusian tiled staircase leads to a spacious landing with a large linen cupboard/dressing room and its own terrace. On this floor are also two large bedrooms with their own terraces boasting sea and countryside views and a generous shared bathroom. One special feature of the house is its many windows, all with traditional wooden frames and shutters, giving a very light and homely feel. Close to the main house there is also a lovely 2 bedroom guest house, perfect for guests or staff. Large tracts of the fertile land are planted with a great variety of fruit trees. It is an absolute pleasure to walk around these pretty scented surroundings with fantastic sea and mountain views. The finca provides several huge...
