The property was extended and became a private residence in 1987 and in 2012 was totally renovated and upgraded to create the finest boutique hotel and wedding venue in the area. As you enter the double electric gates the drive leads you up to the beautiful, romantic Spanish style cortijo where the ambience is so calm and peaceful. The large, old wooden doors open into a lovely courtyard surrounded by fantastic views and secret gardens that embrace the property. Not only is the cortijo so carefully designed with love and detail, but also the gardens are designed from different parts of the world as well as the interior of the property. The main house comprises a large lounge and separate dining hall, both with impressive vaulted ceilings decorated in typical Andalusian style with Moorish influences and even a Jewish quarter. These rooms take up 2 sides of the internal courtyard with fountain, used for breakfast and dinner in the summer months. As you enter the cortijo there is a lovely hall way and a Moroccan style courtyard. Down the hall way to the left is an en-suite bedroom, large spacious kitchen and a beautiful dining room...
