A beautiful property with views across open countryside located on the edge of the village of Partola a short drive from the town of Albox. This property offers spacious and comfortable living whether for a large family or as a Bed & Breakfast establishment, which it was for some years. The property has nine bedrooms in total, from double bedrooms, a family suite to a self-contained unit they can cater for everyone. A large guest lounge and second family lounge allow some privacy and peace at the end of a busy day. A beautiful dining room with a fireplace is the perfect setting for dinner or there is ample patio space to dine outside on a warm Summers evening or the huge roof terrace. A large kitchen with vast work surfaces make for a good catering facility with easy access to the dining room. Guest bedrooms have bathroom facilities within the room or there are doubles with larger bathrooms adjacent. The converted stable block offers two good sized bedrooms divided by a bathroom so it's ideal as a family suite. There's a pretty self-contained unit to the side of the property which could be rented out very easily. The garden is bursting with colourful shrubs and succulents, there's a shaded seating area...
