This superb olive farm & equestrian estate is isolated from any kind of noise in a privileged enclave within the area of the Natural Park 70 km from Cordoba and 80 km from Antequera. The old, but well maintained and traditionally furnished cortijo is 3,200 m² and is organised in the typical Andalusian architecture with a large internal patio giving access to the stables, staff quarters, storage and main house. The main house has several reception rooms with open fireplaces and beamed ceilings on the ground floor as well as two kitchens, one of them industrial catering to bigger events. On the upper floor are seven double bedrooms with two bathrooms and the master suite. The staff quarters could easily be converted into guest suites and include another six bedrooms, bathrooms, kitchen and living room. There are stabling facilities for 70 horses with most of the horse feed being grown on the farm. There is a large bodega at present serving as a hall for the horse carriages. The large covered terrace leads into the garden with swimming pool and bordering a big lake fed by the Genil river which provides the necessary water for the land. The land in total is totally fenced with one entrance gate. Approximately 277...
