Las Herrerias de Rio Madera is a 1560 acre working estate set in the Natural Park of the Sierras of Cazorla, Segura y Las Villas. Through a careful management programme, the estate ensures the protection of its wonderful natural environment, which is home to a great variety of indigenous wildlife. There are three houses currently on the estate. The original estate farmhouse, El Cortijo de Rio Madera, is 100 years old and has been completely restored in traditional style whilst incorporating environmentally-friendly technology. Original stone and timber features have been retained where possible. The farmhouse has solar power, under floor heating and wood from the estate serves as fuel for the large open fireplace and stoves. The cortijo is currently being run as a self-catering rental business and is registered by the Andalusian Ministry of Tourism. It has been awarded the highest grade possible “Superior”. The cortijo is 500 sq metres and is comprised of 8 double bedrooms, 6 bathrooms, 2 living rooms, dining room, kitchen, larder & laundry. Library, Family/Games room and TV room. Large outdoor dining terrace, viewing terrace, large covered BBQ with chimney, open garage for 2 cars, children’s play area and swimming pool. The Casa de los Cazadores was constructed in 1980 and is 400 m2...
