An unfinished restoration project of this large farmhouse with a great income from the almonds and olive trees, with stunning views and ideal for horse riding, biking, walking, quads,,, or ecologic business. There is a large country house, plus rear stables and courtyard, plus front garage/barn with more stables and 25 hectares of almond and olive trees which give to the owner a yearly income of about 50000 €,. Before you arrive at the property you start to enjoy breath-taking views to the valley and the Sierra Nevada in the distance. Once at the house there is a front patio-terrace with a traditional stone floor and vine-grape shade, plus a covered BBQ area at the corner. Entering the house to a hallway, then there is a master bedroom, a sitting room which leads to another bedroom. At the end of the hallway/corridor is the kitchen-dining room with chimney and traditional cupboards to each side. The upper level is unfinished so can be completed to your taste, there is plenty of space for up to 4 bedrooms and a bathroom, or 2 large studio apartments. At the rear side of the property there is a large patio and a large stable which is used for storage. There is a huge barn behind...
